

Extra Literature Essays:

Paper 1: Shakespeare and Poetry

Write about the relationship between Macbeth and Lady Macbeth and how it is presented at different points in the play.

Write about Lady Macbeth and how she is presented at different points in the play.

Write about the character of Macbeth and how he is presented at different points in the play.

Write about the male characters in Macbeth and how they are presented at different points in the play.

Write about the supernatural in Macbeth and how Shakespeare presents this theme throughout the play.

Guilt is a key theme in Macbeth. Write about how Shakespeare presents guilt at different points in the play.

Write about the characters' mental decline in Macbeth and how Shakespeare presents this theme throughout the play.

Ambition is a key theme in Macbeth. Write about how Shakespeare presents ambition at different points in the play.

For the Poetry section, you can make up your own question by following:

Q1. [Title] is a poem about [theme]. How does [poet] present [theme] in the poem? Refer to the contexts of the poem in your answer.

Q2. Choose one other poem from the anthology in which the poet also writes about [theme].

Paper 2: Post-1914 Drama, 19th c. Prose, and Unseen Poetry

Write about Mr Birling and how he is presented at different points in the play.

Write about Mrs Birling and how she is presented at different points in the play.

Write about Eric Birling and how he is presented at different points in the play.

Write about Sheila Birling and how she is presented at different points in the play.

Write about Gerald Croft and how he is presented at different points in the play.

Write about the Inspector and how he is important to the play as a whole.

Write about the theme of responsibility in An Inspector Calls and how it is presented at different points in the play.

Write about the theme of class in An Inspector Calls and how it is presented at different points in the play.

Write about the theme of guilt in An Inspector Calls and how it is presented at different points in the play.

Redemption is a key theme in A Christmas Carol. Write about how Dickens presents redemption at different points in the novella.

Write about how Dickens presents the ghosts. How are they important to the novel as a whole?

Write about some members of the Cratchit family and how they are important to the novel as a whole.

In A Christmas Carol, characters have different views about poverty and the poor. Write about how Dickens presents some of these different views throughout A Christmas Carol.

Write about Scrooge and how he is presented at different points in the novella.

Christmas is a key theme in A Christmas Carol. Write about how Dickens presents Christmas at different points in the novella.

The supernatural is a key theme in A Christmas Carol. Write about how Dickens presents the supernatural at different points in the novella.

Love is a key theme in A Christmas Carol. Write about how Dickens presents love at different points in the novella.

The gap between rich and poor is a key theme in A Christmas Carol. Write about how Dickens presents rich and the poor at different points in the novella.

Many different characters have an effect on Scrooge's behaviour in the novella. Write about which characters affect Scrooge's behaviour and how, throughout the novella.